

ORGANIZING TO CREATE SAFER SCHOOLS FOR LGBTQ YOUTH

Saturday, March 28th

10:00 AM to 4:00 PM

@ The LGBT Community Center
(208 W. 13th St. between 7th & 8th Ave)

NYQueer (NYCoRE), the Gay and Lesbian Student Education Network (GLSEN), New York Civil Liberties Union (NYCLU), Connect 2 Protect (C2P), the LGBT Center's YES Program, APICHA, Generation Q, Lambda Legal, the Ali Forney Center, Latino Youth in Action, Our Youth, PFLAG for Families of Color and Allies in New York, Girls for Gender Equity (GGE), and the Trevor Project are part of a growing list of sponsors for Beyond Tolerance 3: Organizing To Create Safer Schools for LGBTQ Youth.

This is the third in an ongoing series of events aimed at building a stronger solidarity network between students, teachers and community organizers who share the goal of combating homophobia and transphobia both in and outside of schools. Featured workshops include:

Forming and Maintaining Gay Straight Alliances (GSAs)

How can we help facilitate ongoing student organizing?

Students' Rights and the Chancellor's Regulations

Boys will be boys, right? Wrong. Learn about a student's right to be safe in school, the DOE's obligation to protect youth and what teachers can do to help.

Lobby 101

Ready to head to the capitol? Hear about how you can help students speak out and influence government policies.

Organizing for National Day of Silence

This session focuses on developing specific plans of action for taking part in GLSEN's National Day of Silence

For more information or to RSVP, write to nyqueer@nycore.org. You can also check us out on Facebook or visit www.nycore.org

This event is free and open to the public.