

Action and Exchange Through the Arts
a collaboration between NYCORE and The New Museum

*How can we use art in the classroom to help us enrich our curriculum?
How can we use art as a tool to connect our students to important issues and engage them in opportunities for dialogue and exchange?*

Join New Museum and NYCORE (New York Collective of Radical Educators) in a FREE special 2-part interactive workshop that introduces teachers to using contemporary art in the classroom. Participants will also work intensively with international New Museum artist Nicolás Paris to explore how art can be used as a platform for discussion and exploration of ideas and have the opportunity to reflect on how to take workshop activities and strategies back into the classroom.

WHEN:

Thursday, February 2 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the New Museum
Thursday, February 9 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the New Museum

All participating teachers will be invited for a free tour of the New Museum Triennial “The Ungovernables” after the workshop ends. For more information on this and other exhibitions, see www.newmuseum.org/exhibitions/ungovernables Founded in 1977, the New Museum is located on Bowery at Prince Street and is a leading destination for new art and new ideas. It is Manhattan's only dedicated contemporary art museum.

How do I register?

*To register please email Jen at jsong@newmuseum.org
We encourage participants to sign up for the entire two part series.
Middle School and High School educators are encouraged to apply.
Registration is limited.*

FREE!!!!!!!!!!

